INSIGHTS FROM TEEN CONFIRMATION

BY KAREN FOSTER, FAMILY MINISTRY COORDINATOR

For the past eight months, 59 teens have been on a journey to grow in their Catholic faith and embrace their roles as mature and faithful disciples of Christ as they prepare for the Sacrament of Confirmation.

One significant piece of the Confirmation preparation journey is that the teens commit to doing 30 hours of community service and then reflect on their service experience. Their service reflections include descriptions of service activities, unexpected things learned through doing the service, challenges encountered, pleasant aspects of serving, and how God's love was reflected on the teen or those being served. I would like to share some of their direct insights below.

"Unexpected things I learned through doing service..."

I thought it would be boring and I would want to get finished as soon as possible with the least amount of effort, but I enjoyed helping people and wanted to do my best to complete the tasks.

I thought finishing 30 hours of service would take forever, but I was surprised how happy it made me feel after I completed it. I found that doing service hours is not a boring activity but actually fun.

I realized how much work there really is to be done and that a lot of people spend so much time cleaning up for us and don't get recognized for their effort even when they aren't required to do so.

I discovered how much I actually like volunteering for the community.

I was feeling closer to God for all the help I was contributing to the community.

I learned how impactful even a small act of kindness can be to a person in need. I felt so humbled by the immense amount of gratitude that I was shown.

"Challenges I encountered..."

Sometimes I'd be having a bad day but after I'd go and do the work, I'd feel a bit better, which was good.

It was challenging to find the time to get the 30 hours in with my already busy schedule but it was worth it.

It was hard to find time to fit it all in, but in the end it all worked out.

"Pleasant or surprising aspects of serving that I observed..."

I saw the joy that playing piano brought to the elderly and it made me want to keep coming back.

One of the most pleasant parts of serving was the feeling that I made a difference.

The most pleasant part of doing service was all the gratitude I received and how thankful people were for my service and presence.

The most pleasant part was seeing the joy on people's faces after helping them out.

"How God's love was reflected on me or on those I served..."

When you do a service for someone, they absorb God's love and feel good so that makes you feel good.

God wants everybody to be happy and one way to be happy is by doing service. The person you are doing service for is smiling and you yourself are even smiling.

Completing service was a very beneficial experience as it helped me show God's love to others and at the same time learn about myself. By helping others, I am doing God's will and end up feeling more peaceful and happy in the end.

God has given each one of us gifts and we should use them to service others. Providing service is a way to thank Jesus for what he has given us and done for us.

Doing service for others reflects God's love for us because it is helping the unfortunate and needy and showing our love and generosity for others as God shows love and generosity for us.

Service helps you learn about other people's perspectives and how you can help them. It improves your relationship with God because you are caring for others.

The Gift of the Holy Spirit

It is clear that these 59 teens have gained much from their community service experiences. On April 20, 2023, they will be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit when they receive the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Please join me in praying for the continued spiritual growth of our St. Mary's Student Parish Confirmation candidates.

2023 Diocesan Services Appeal (DSA)

APPEAL

DIOCESE OF LANSING

“Offer to God
a sacrifice of thanksgiving”
Psalm 50:14

EACH YEAR, THE DIOCESAN SERVICES APPEAL (DSA) UNITES ALL 72 PARISHES OF OUR DIOCESE, DRAWING US TOGETHER TO ACHIEVE FAR MORE THAN ANY INDIVIDUAL OR ANY SINGLE PARISH COULD ACCOMPLISH ALONE.

“Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving.”

This text from the Book of Psalms reminds us how we are to respond to the many gifts we have been given by God, and that greatest gift: the gift of his Son in the Holy Eucharist. In this year of Eucharistic Revival, let us be especially grateful for the Eucharist which in Greek literally means “to give thanks.” Many blessings from God call forth from us many thanks, even sacrificial thanks.

Our Diocesan Services Appeal is one such opportunity to give God thanks for his great gifts; for the work of the Church in our own lives and in lives across our diocese. We put DSA dollars to work right away to provide help and hope for those most in need to discover the saving love of Jesus.

Day after day, year after year, the Catholic Church – through our parishes, our Catholic Charities agencies, our Catholic schools, and dozens of other services and ministries – provides vital care and services to all Christ’s people in the Diocese of Lansing.

With the strength and nourishment given to us in the Holy Eucharist, let us “Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving” for the many blessings he has, and will bestow upon us!

Diocesan Services Appeal

2023 Goal - $5,650,000

Lord, grant us the grace to sacrifice generously in our support of the Diocesan Services Appeal, so that, in union with the Holy Eucharist, we may give you thanks for your many gifts.

Instead, we should rediscover "the silence of Adoration: he is the Lord and I adore him."-Pope Francis Eucharistic Adoration will be available each Wednesday in the Church from 5:45pm-9:00pm.

Please sign up as we are in need of 2 adorers per time slot.

RACIAL INEQUITY IN JUVENILE JUSTICE:

From the time of the earliest European settlers until 1900, children in the U.S. who were undisciplined or committed crimes were brought before adult courts. In 1899, a wave of progressive reforms saw the First juvenile courts in the world designed to help parent and nurture troubled children and youth. These courts gradually changed to resemble the adult criminal system with more juveniles being prosecuted and placed away from family for longer durations. Poor and marginalized children and youth have always been overrepresented in our court system, but Black children and youth have fared the worst. Walter Mosley narrates this video, “History of the Juvenile Justice System” youtu.be/c8t9idLFWms that explores this topic further.

Juveniles who committed serious or violent crimes were often sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole (JLWOP), and the state of Michigan currently incarcerates the second largest population of JLWOP in the country with 70 percent identifying as Black. Although the U.S. Supreme Court ruled JLWOP was unconstitutional except in rare cases, and forced states to resentence all JLWOP inmates, Michigan resented 55 percent of these young people to die in prison.

Here is another video - It lets Daniel Jones tell his story as a former JLWOP youtu.be/BlpDjClXmCw “Daniel Jones on Life Beyond Life”.

Research has shown that youth are more capable of changing behavior and making better choices as their brains mature. As Christians, we believe that no sin is beyond God’s redemptive love. Catholic Social Teaching reminds us that God calls us to a justice “where we are in right relationship with God, with one another, and the rest of God’s creation.” (USCCB, Open Wide Our Hearts: The Enduring Call to Love) Our faith embraces efforts of restorative justice, but for those young people condemned to die in prison, what hope energizes their efforts to change?

Michigan legislators have introduced bills into the House and Senate to ban juvenile life without parole and reform life sentences for juveniles. This article speaks to the proposed legislation with a link to each bill michiganadvance.com/2023/03/07/senate-house-tee-up-bills-to-end-juvenile-life-without-parole/. Support of these bills offers one avenue of healing the hurt.

Prayer: Oh God, create in me a heart filled with the kind of love that reflects your own. Open my mind to those I want to reject; open my heart to those I prefer to avoid. Open my eyes to see beyond the surface of individuals and recognize your presence in each one. Soften whatever is hardened in my heart so that I bring your peace wherever I go. Amen. (Joyce Rupp)

Note: This is part of a monthly series to help parishioners learn more about racism, to reflect on our conscious and unconscious attitudes, and to pray that that we all work to fully accept, honor, and support all people as children of God.

Thomas believed because he saw the risen Jesus. Although we have never seen him, we believe in him. We give thanks to the Lord for this gift, especially when we gather for the breaking of the bread and the prayers.

APRIL 23—Third Sunday of Easter

Reading I	Acts	2:14, 22-23

Reading II	1Pt	1:17-21
