Parish Insight

A NEW TEAM, AND OCTOBER HIGHLIGHTS

By Fr Dan Dixon, Parochial Vicar

I can't believe October is already here. It feels like I just arrived in July, excited to meet you all. While I have spent almost all of my life either attending school or teaching, how ironic that I have felt like a new student, eager to learn from you all about what it means to be a priest. And while I am not rushing to say goodbye to September, the gorgeous weather, and the excitement of new beginnings, I feel sure that October will be just as blessed, in its own ways.

Speaking of blessings, I am honored to help lead the Faith Formation team at St. Mary. Helping all our parishioners grow in faith is a priority for us, from our programs serving families with children and young adults, led capably by Karen Foster (Family Faith Formation), Maribel Rosas (Hispanic/Latino sacramental prep), and Elisa Alvarez (Teen Confirmation). In addition to being an Ignatian Spirituality guru, Rita Zyber directs our RCIA program and provides excellent materials and support for our Small Church Communities. Julia Novotny leads our Faith Doing Justice efforts, where she is excited to partner with energetic student and resident parishioners who are committed to serving and advocating for the most vulnerable people among us. Julie Mussio continues to accompany dozens of couples annually through marriage preparation while also organizing our liturgical volunteers. Last but certainly not least, Bailey Burke is one of our two campus missionary disciples who has a heart full of zeal to help evangelize our undergraduate students through retreats and various formation and social events, not only here at St. Mary but all throughout campus.

Though these programs may seem disparate due to their diverse populations we serve, we are all united in the desire to help others grow in their relationship with God such that, as one parish community, we might do our part to accompany others as God leads us into a hope-filled future. That's why our theme for this year is Building the Body of Christ. This image of the Church as the mystical Body of Christ is as old as the Church itself, dating back to the letters of St. Paul, who reminds us that "though many...by the Spirit we are all baptized into one body" (1 Cor 12:12-13).

As Catholics we are convinced that every human life is sacred: a gift from God that is necessary for the mystical body of Christ, the Church, to flourish. That's why, with Catholic Churches across the United States, this October we are proud to celebrate Respect Life Month. As Laura Durocher, a senior here and president of Michigan Catholics, put it so aptly in her weekly newsletter, to respect life is "to understand that regardless of whether or not you are elderly, poor, disabled, imprisoned, homeless, a migrant, a child conceived in difficult circumstances, or someone who has experienced abortion, your life is a gift."

Each week this month in the bulletin we will highlight a particular group or cause that we can support with our prayers, time, and resources in our collective effort to respect life. This week we are highlighting the World Day of Migrants and Refugees, called by Pope Francis on September 24th, with a one page bulletin insert. Consider taking the time to read it over and pray about how the Spirit may be calling you individually, and us as Church together, to respond.

Over the next few weeks, look also for reflections from our Faith Formation team members about how they are witnessing the Holy Spirit building up the Body of Christ in St. Mary in various ways. We all believe strongly that the Spirit is present here, seeking to build us up as one community of faith, that God's will might be done not only within the walls of 331 Thompson St. but also in all parts of our lives.

Wishing each of you and your families many blessings as we journey into October together as Church.

World Day of Migrants and Refugees

24·IX·2023

“Free to choose whether to migrate or to stay”

The World Day of Migrants and Refugees 2023

The Holy See Press Office published the Message of Pope Francis for the 109th World Day of Migrants and Refugees (WDMR) to be held on Sunday, September 24, 2023 with the theme: “Free to choose whether to migrate or to stay”.

In his Message, Pope Francis recalls that “migrants flee because of poverty, fear or desperation” and points out that some of the most visible causes of migration are “Persecutions, wars, atmospheric phenomena and dire poverty”.

In this regard, the Holy Father indicates in the Message that “Joint efforts are needed by individual countries and the international community to ensure that all enjoy the right not to be forced to emigrate, in other words, the chance to live in peace and with dignity in one’s own country.”

The Pope also asks “to see in the migrant not simply a brother or sister in difficulty, but Christ himself, who knocks at our door” and adds that, “as we work to ensure that in every case migration is the fruit of a free decision, we are called to show maximum respect for the dignity of each migrant”.

“In whatever place we decide to build our future, in the country of our birth or elsewhere, the important thing is that there always be a community ready to welcome, protect, promote and integrate everyone, without distinctions and without excluding anyone,” wrote Pope Francis.

Pope Francis’ Prayer for the 2023 WDMR

God, Father Almighty, grant us the grace to work tirelessly
for justice, solidarity and peace,
so that all your children may enjoy
the freedom to choose whether to migrate or to stay.
Grant us the courage to denounce
all the horrors of our world,
and to combat every injustice
that mars the beauty of your children and the harmony of our common home.
Sustain us by the power of your Spirit,
so that we can reflect your tender love
to every migrant whom you place in our path,
and to spread in hearts and in every situation
the culture of encounter and of care.

SAFE HAVEN SUNDAY : EQUIPPING THE FAMILY, SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN

The family home is to be a safe haven. But the inappropriate use of technology in the home deprives it of this role, and is the greatest threat to the sanctity of marriages and families today. Pornography and other online threats are often one click away, and parents can feel overwhelmed with not knowing how to best protect their children in our fast-paced digital world.

Next weekend , October 8th, St . Mary Student Parish is taking a bold step to help families by celebrating Safe Haven Sunday. This awareness day will provide access to practical resources that any caring adult can use to protect themselves and our young people from online risks.

Please join us with your prayers and presence as we prepare for this unique event. To learn more, please contact Frank Bertram jbertram800@gmail.com

Sunday Readings

OCTOBER 1 - Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I	Ez	18:25-28
Psalm	Ps	25:4-9
Reading II	Phil	2:1-11
Gospel	Mt	21:28-32

Jesus was obedient to the Father, even to death on a cross. We need never fear if we turn away from the path of virtue for the Lord is ever ready to forgive us, if we but repent. Remember, the Lord's compassion and kindness are from of old.

OCTOBER 8 - Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I	Is	5: 1-7
Psalm	Ps	80: 9, 12-16, 19-20
Reading II	Phil	4: 6-9
Gospel	Mt	21:33-43

The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel. At vintage time the master will return to receive the harvest. May we bear fruit in plenty, and be pleasing in his sight by living lives that are marked by love and respect.
