BETWEEN FAITH AND FEAR By Gina Martorano, Parishioner

My name is Gina Martorano, I was born in Venezuela, and I came to the United States in 2005. Here in Ann Arbor, I met my husband, Rafael Chávez, who is from Peru. When we met, it felt like we had known each other our whole lives, and we fell in love right away. Rafael has always been very close to the church and a man of great faith, whereas I hadn't grown up as closely connected to the Church. It was with Rafael that I rediscovered my faith. We got married in 2009 here in Saint Mary, and three years later, our first son, Sebastián, was born.

By the end of 2013, we were expecting Sofia. Almost at the same time we found out we were expecting our second baby, we learned that the lump I had been feeling in my back for some time, initially thought to be a muscle spasm, was actually a very aggressive cancer. I remember seeing the look on my husband's face when we received the diagnosis; he was in complete shock. At that moment, I said to Rafael, "The Lord still has many good things prepared for us." I felt that despite the devastating news, God was present and wouldn't abandon us. With Rafael, we decided to face whatever came our way together, and whenever we felt fear or despair, we would cling to God. He granted us the grace not to succumb to panic despite the uncertainty; on the contrary, He gave us the strength to face this great test of faith that lay ahead.

A doctor told us I needed a very risky surgery and that we should terminate the pregnancy of just 8 weeks, and we had to choose between the baby's life and mine. We left there, still in shock from what we had just heard. Rafael lost his father when he was only 2 years old and felt that the same could happen to his children. From the doctor's office, we went to the adoration chapel of Christ the King Parish, and upon arrival, right in the parking lot, we saw Deacon Lou, who kindly agreed to talk to us. He said, "You can choose between faith and fear. God has created this perfect and wonderful world for us and always wants the best for His children. Always expect the good."

His words gave us courage and strength to face whatever came with the conviction that Our Heavenly Father had wonderful things prepared for us, and we had to trust in His goodness and mercy.

By God's grace, we began to attend the church's prayer groups weekly, and whenever there were healing masses, we tried to be present. In each one, I felt a relief, as if a weight had been lifted off my shoulders. Now I understand that it was God telling me, "Calm down, I am with you, everything will be fine." Our girl was born at 38 weeks healthy and strong, and we named her Sofia María, which means wisdom, the wisdom that the Holy Spirit gave us to say no to abortion and yes to life. And of course, Maria in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary, who had been watching over and interceding for us all this time. "Valley of the shadow of death," I always repeated to myself in my head, "My faith is greater than my diagnosis."

Despite the risks of the surgery and the fact that the tumor had grown too much, the doctors decided to operate on me and warned me that I probably wouldn't walk again. The surgery lasted more than 13 hours, with 5 different medical teams. It was a success, but I remember waking up the next day and seeing everyone waiting to see if I could move my legs, they wanted to know if I would walk again. What they didn't know was that when I entered the hospital that day of the surgery, I told Rafael and in my mind I promised him, my children, and my parents, that I would walk into the hospital and walk out. So after more than a week hospitalized, I left the hospital walking by the grace and mercy of God.

I always thank the Lord for the strength He gave me, which I didn't know I had, to move forward. Every time I see Sofia growing up healthy, strong, and intelligent, I see God's love and the irrefutable proof that if we have faith and always expect good from our Heavenly Father, He will never disappoint us, He will always be there to give us a word of encouragement through His word, or He will make the right people, at the right time, be the hands or feet that the Lord needs to offer us His help. I am blessed to have my family and friends with me and all the support of those people that the Lord placed in our path and who perhaps, without knowing us well, lifted their prayers to God for us.

Now, during Holy Week, it has been 10 years since the surgery, and I am still cancer-free, walking, and with a beautiful family and friends around me. All thanks to the fact that our Lord Jesus was always walking by our side in those difficult moments and that only by His grace could we overcome, betting on life and not death since He and only He conquered death!

This is my story of faith.

HAITI EMPOWERMENT MEETING SUNDAY, MAY 19 AT 11:00 AM

In 2010, Haiti sustained a devastating 7.0 earthquake that resulted in the death of an estimated 300,000 people.

That year an International Samaritan group traveled to Haiti to listen, learn, and serve the community of Port au Prince. Parishoner Mary Wakefield, a member of that group, was deeply impacted by the experience, especially her time at Jakmel Ekspresyon Culture Center. This cultural and community center empowers youth through classes, job skills, and educational opportunities.

Join Mary Wakefield and founder of the Center, Susan Frame, on Sunday, May 19 from 11am-12pm in Donnelly Hall for a presentation to learn more about the work of Jakmel Ekspresyon Culture Center and how life out of destruction is happening, and how we can be part of this brighter future.

CORNERSTONE 100TH ANNIVERSARY

On April 6, 1924, the cornerstone of what would become St. Mary Student Chapel was laid at the corner of William and Thompson Streets in Ann Arbor. Bishop Michael Gallagher of the then Diocese of Detroit presided over the ceremony with a crowd of thousands of spectators. The Very Reverend John McNichols, S.J., president of the University of Detroit, spoke at the dedication on the theme of "the relation of science and faith."

APPEAL

“The Offering of the Just Enriches the Altar.” This verse from the book of Sirach, can help us reflect on what we are doing during Mass. When we offer our prayers and gifts in union with others, we join ourselves to the sacrifice of Jesus Christ on the altar every Sunday.

Our Diocesan Services Appeal is one such occasion to unite ourselves more deeply to the sacrifice of the altar. Our DSA offerings are a powerful opportunity to enrich the work of the church in the year ahead. We put DSA dollars to work right away in ministries that share the love of Jesus.

Day after day, year after year, the Catholic Church through our parishes, our Catholic Charities agencies, our Catholic schools, and dozens of other services and ministries provides help and hope to those in need. DSA donations are vital to these corporal and spiritual works of mercy. Your generosity underscores this profound truth - that our offerings, our sacrifices, and our charity manifest the very essence of our faith, consistently and without fail.
