ST. MARY STUDENT PARISH

CATHOLIC CAMPUS MINISTRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

6th SUNDAY OF EASTER

“It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you.

This I command you: love one another.” - Jn 15:16-17

6<sup>o</sup> DOMINGO DE PASCUA

“No son ustedes los que me han elegido, soy yo quien los ha elegido y los ha destinado para que vayan y den fruto y su fruto permanezca, de modo que el Padre les conceda cuanto le pidan en mi nombre. Esto es lo que les mando: que se amen los unos a los otros”. - Jn 15, 16-17

Parish Insight

Graduate reflection

By Laura Durocher, Intern Student at St. Mary Student Parish

In mid-February, I committed to a year of service after graduation at a women's shelter in Boston through the Jesuit Volunteer Corps. The day after accepting the offer, I remember staring at the packing list of items I was allowed to bring with me for the year: a week's worth of clothes, some toiletries, bedding, and bath towels. One of JVC's core values (and one of the things that attracted me to it in the first place) involves living in simplicity so as to better live in solidarity with the people that you are serving. But that day in February, I remember thinking there was no way that I could do that. What about my favorite books? Am I allowed to bring my guitar? Exactly how many pairs of shoes are included in a week's worth of clothes? I realized – slightly terrified – just how little I actually needed, but how much I was deeply attached to. Despite my affection for these things, I started trying to accept that I wouldn't be able to take them all with me.

With graduation on the horizon, I have been forced to ask myself these same questions about my time here at U of M. What will I leave behind? Most importantly, what from my four years in Ann Arbor do I want to bring with me? It didn't take too much reflection for me to realize that one of the hardest things for me to have to leave behind will be this community here at St. Mary. However, I have realized that while I can't take much of the physical aspects of St. Mary with me, that doesn't mean that I have to leave it all behind. Sure, I'll be separated from some dear friends, but I will take with me crucial skills on how to have healthy, meaningful, Christ-centered relationships. I won't be able to take my favorite chair in the Newman lounge where I've spent countless hours studying, but I will be taking with me the importance of cultivating welcoming spaces within the communities I am a part of. My favorite spot to pray (up by the tabernacle in the church) will not be transplanted to Boston with me, but my relationship with God that was formed there will definitely be coming with me.

I've come to realize that as I move to a new city and on to a new chapter of life, I will not be heading to Boston empty-handed. My hands might only be carrying a single suitcase, but my heart will be overflowing with all the love, support, faith, and friendship that the students and parishioners in this community have gifted me with during my time here. God has allowed me to receive so many graces and joys from such a generous community. My hope is that this year with JVC provides me with the time and space to give back in the same manner that I have so generously been given to.

Whether or not you are also facing a big life transition, I encourage you to take some time to reflect this Easter season on what God is prompting you to let go of in your life. I'm learning that we often have to be intentional in making sure that our hands and our hearts are free enough to receive the gifts and graces God so lovingly wants to give us.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

St. Mary Student Parish is a welcoming, inclusive, caring, and diverse Catholic community, uniting residents and students.

We are Christ-centered with the Eucharist as the source of holiness in our vibrant liturgical life.

Inspired by Ignatian spirituality, we live a faith that does justice, reaching out to the marginalized.

As an apostolic parish, we are committed to ongoing formation of Christian witness, discipleship, and leadership.

Thinking of becoming Catholic? We'd love to talk

This is the time of year when many people are making decisions about various paths in life, and often, they contact us about exploring the Catholic faith.

We welcome seekers and inquirers at any stage, and are happy to talk with you about the OCIA journey. OCIA (formerly known as RCIA), stands for the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults. It's the process the Church has created to help new members join the Catholic faith.

Here at St. Mary, our OCIA sessions help people who may be thinking about becoming Catholic, as well as adult Catholics who have never completed Confirmation. Formal sessions begin in September, but it's a good time to discuss your journey as a faith seeker and see if we can help you discern where God might be leading you.

Since we're a student parish, we have many students and young adults who prepare throughout the year. Our sessions are from 7 to 9 p.m. on Wednesdays (following the U-M and holiday schedule). Inquirers will be initiated into the faith at Easter, if they feel ready.

Wondering about the name change?

Most people are familiar with the program's former name, RCIA. After the Vatican II sessions in the late 1960s, the Catholic Church restored the ancient catechumenate form of education for new members. The process was outlined in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults.

The RCIA book is now being re-translated from the original Latin. This is part of an effort started by Pope John Paul II in 2001 and continued by Pope Francis in 2017. Going over each of the books for the Church's various rites, the Bishops' Conferences around the world (including the U.S. Bishops) have been updating their translations.

The RCIA book is one of the last to be updated, but the U.S. bishops decided in 2021 that the word "order" is more appropriate in the name, in part because the Latin name was Ordo Initiationis Christianae Adultorum. In the new translation, the word ordo became order.

The new word is also more comprehensive, emphasizing a continuous process of spiritual formation for those who want to join the Church. The individual rites are still in place, but the name conveys that the preparation process is a journey toward discipleship with Christ, not just a series of checkpoints to complete.

Despite the new name, our parish remains committed to providing a welcoming, prayerful space for learning and growing in the faith. For more information, visit our website and click on the registration form. michigancatholics.org/to-become-catholic/

You can also contact OCIA Coordinator Rita Zyber at rzyber@smspnewman.org

Also note: If you are a Catholic who has been away for a while and you'd like to talk about returning to a more active faith life, please feel free to speak with one of our priests. Sometimes a good conversation can make a difference. Their email info is listed each week in the bulletin.

WOMEN OF THE HEART

THURSDAY, MAY 9 | 10:15 AM

Women of the Heart is a gathering of women seeking to enrich their spirituality through a short presentation, reflection, discussion, prayer, while building relationships with one another. All women of the parish are invited to the monthly gatherings of Women of The Heart. Please feel free to attend as often as your schedule allows. No registration is needed. During this academic year the theme will be "Seasons of Our Journey."

Ecclesiastes 3:1, "For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven".

Should you have any questions and/or wish to have your email be included in communication being sent out related to the monthly meetings, please contact Julie Mussio at jmussio@smspnewman.org.

HAITI EMPOWERMENT MEETING

SUNDAY, MAY 19 AT 11:00 AM

In 2010, Haiti sustained a devastating 7.0 earthquake that resulted in the death of an estimated 300,000 people. From this devastation, Jakmel Ekspresyon Culture Center was born. This Center serves as a cultural and community center that empowers youth through classes, job skills, and educational opportunities in Haiti.

Join the Center's founder, Susan Frame, and St. Mary parishioner, Mary Wakefield, on Sunday, May 19 from 11am-12pm in Donnelly Hall for a presentation to learn more about the work of Jakmel Ekspresyon Culture Center, how life out of destruction is happening, and how we can be part of this brighter future.

NAZARETH FARM HIGH SCHOOL SERVICE RETREAT OPPORTUNITY

Calling high school students: join your fellow SMSP teens as we journey to West Virginia for a service retreat experience at Nazareth Farm June 30-July 6th, 2024. To learn more and/or to register contact Julia at jnovotny@smspnewman.org
The deadline to register is Sunday, May 5.

A LETTER FROM SR. PRISCILLA AND THE HOSPITAL IN UGANDA

Dear friends of St Mary Student Parish

We are very grateful to God for your Assistance to make our patients feel good to be nursed in good beddings as the recovery of every patient starts with a good bed. We were able to purchase blankets and bedsheets for patients and also made permanent cooking stoves for attendants because they cook for themselves when they have patients in Hospital.

The sisters receiving the bedding are Sr. Juliet, who is the hospital administrator, and Sr. Miria, our medical student in 5th year medicine.

May God bless you St Mary's Student Parish. It is our hope that one day we can host some of you in our facility so that you see all the support you have given us over time.

May God bless you!

2024 Diocesan Services Appeal (DSA)

Thank you to everyone who has made a gift or pledge commitment to our Diocesan Services Appeal.

As of April 28, we reached out 36.12 % of our goal. If you have not yet made a gift or a pledge, we invite you to do so today. Your donation will help to fill food pantries, provide mental health and substance abuse treatment, and support restorative justice and prison ministry for our sisters and brothers throughout the Diocese. Gift envelopes are available in church or the parish office. Or you may submit your gift online at dioceseoflansing.org/appeal. Your DSA gift will support the vital services and ministries that help bring the love of Christ to all we encounter.

Any size gift, no matter how big or small, makes a difference!

“The Offering of the Just Enriches the Altar.” This verse from the book of Sirach, can help us reflect on what we are doing during Mass. When we offer our prayers and gifts in union with others, we join ourselves to the sacrifice of Jesus Christ on the altar every Sunday.

Our Diocesan Services Appeal is one such occasion to unite ourselves more deeply to the sacrifice of the altar. Our DSA offerings are a powerful opportunity to enrich the work of the church in the year ahead. We put DSA dollars to work right away in ministries that share the love of Jesus.

Day after day, year after year, the Catholic Church through our parishes, our Catholic Charities agencies, our Catholic schools, and dozens of other services and ministries provides help and hope to those in need. DSA donations are vital to these corporal and spiritual works of mercy. Your generosity underscores this profound truth - that our offerings, our sacrifices, and our charity manifest the very essence of our faith, consistently and without fail.

EACH YEAR, THE DIOCESAN SERVICES APPEAL (DSA) UNITES ALL 71 PARISHES OF OUR DIOCESE, UNITING US TOGETHER TO ACHIEVE A COMMON GOOD THAT IS FAR MORE THAN ANY INDIVIDUAL OR ANY SINGLE PARISH COULD ACCOMPLISH ALONE.

For more details scan the QR Code or visit dioceseoflansing.org/DSA

Sunday Readings

MAY 5 – Sixth Sunday of Easter

Reading I Acts Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48
 Psalm Ps 98:1, 2-3, 3-4
 Reading II 1 Jn 4:7-10
 Gospel Jn 15:9-17

Let us love one another as Christ has loved us by offering himself for our sins. His love is to be revealed to all the world, as Peter himself taught.

MAY 12 – The Ascension of the Lord

Reading I Acts Acts 1:1-11
 Psalm Ps 47:2-3, 6-9
 Reading II Eph 1:17-23 or 4:1-13 or 4:1-7, 11-13
 Gospel Mk 16:15-20

Jesus commissions his disciples to baptize in his name, reminding them that he is always present through his Spirit. Having ascended to his Father amid cries of gladness, we are to be his witnesses for we have been gifted with his Spirit of wisdom and revelation. Let us, therefore, live in a manner worthy of the call we have received.
